The Young Artist Award is an initiative of RQAS Brisbane and is open to all Queensland residents aged (14-17) or (18-30). The award is designed to encourage and support young artists in the pursuit of excellence.

RQAS promotes engagement with schools, tertiary institutions, art colleges and organisations, galleries and the general community in bringing this Award Exhibition to the notice of young artists.

Young artists are invited to submit 2D artworks in the categories of Painting and Drawing of a subject created and "observed from life" i.e. created by drawing or painting in front of the subject. Photography is to be used as supportive reference only. Subject, genre, stylistic approach and medium are of the artist's choice.

Artists may submit up to four works (digital images) for pre-selection, finalists will be required to frame their work. All entrants will be granted RQAS Membership for 1 year. Judge - Glen Gillard FRQAS.
